

Sakura Kindynis was born in Tahiti. She studied in Paris with P.Y. Artaud, and later in Switzerland with M. Bellavance, P. Racine and J. Rosset. In 2008 she became a member of the "Bern Symphony Orchestra" as 2. Flute/piccolo. Since January 2013 Sakura Kindynis is assistant principal flute of the "Bern Symphony Orchestra".

She is semi-finalist of International Competitions such as "Aurèle Nicolet" 2006 (China), "Jean Pierre Rampal" 2008 (France) and "Kobe" 2009 (Japan).

She was a member of the "Lucerne Festival Academy Orchestra" in 2005, 2007 and 2008 and the "Schleswig-Holstein Festival Orchestra and Chamber Orchestra" in 2007, 2008 and 2009, performing under the guidance of P. Boulez, I. Fischer, C. Eschenbach ...

Since September 2010 she is a member of the German "Arirang Quintet".