

GDPR-based data protection regulation «Music Campus Balchik»

1. The basic processing principles for data apply: transparency, earmarking and proportionality.
2. The persons concerned give consent to the use of their data in which they voluntarily fill in the required documents and send them voluntarily.
3. You can withdraw your consent at any time.
4. The processing of personal data of adolescents under the age of 16 requires the consent of the parents.
5. The data is only used internally and for purpose.
6. The data will be used for the following purposes:
 - 6.1. Contact care regarding participation in the respective master class
 - 6.2. Application for Grant Committee
 - 6.3. Create participant lists for the teaching of professors
 - 6.4. Create a full list of participants for each issue
 - 6.5. Preparation of accommodation list for the Cultural Institute «Dvoreca», Balchik
7. The persons concerned will be informed personally and via the website of the applicable data protection regulations.
8. The rights of the persons concerned regarding the information, return, correction, completion or deletion of their data are guaranteed.
9. Technical and organisational measures ensure that the personal data are secured.
10. The data processing is designed to ensure compliance with the Data Protection Act (privacy by design) and it is assumed that the standard of all settings protects the data (privacy by default).
11. Data breaches must be reported to the competent authorities within 72 hours.
12. Data transfers to other countries that do not have recognized legal data protection regulations are not permitted.
13. Contracts with external data workers are not allowed.
14. The function of the data protection officer is perceived by Ms. Jasmina Stalder.
15. This data protection regulation will enter into force in June 2018.